

Community College of Aurora
Associate of Arts Degree/Transfer to the University of Northern Colorado
2002-2003

The requirements in the AA degree satisfy the general education requirements at the University of Northern Colorado only if the all of the general education core requirements are completed with a grade of 'C' or better. Please consult the UNC Colorado Community College Transfer Guide for information about courses transferable to UNC and contact a CCA advisor to assist you in developing a transfer program and choosing transferable electives. Students also should visit the UNC website <http://community.unco.edu/subjects/m2mschool.php3?5> for course information specific to your major. Important: If you intend to transfer into an elementary education program at UNC, it is vital that you contact UNC within your first semester at CCA to meet specific program requirements.

Note: up to 64 semester credits will transfer to the University of Northern Colorado. To ensure a smooth transfer process, be sure to apply for UNC's transfer program, UNC Bound, offered to CCA students. Applications are available at the CCA Advising Center (CTC) or at One-Stop Student Services (LC903). For more information about UNC, contact the Admissions Office at 970-351-2881 or visit their web site at <http://www.unco.edu>. In addition, representatives from UNC often visit the campus. Call the CCA Advising Center to find out their schedule at 303-360-4797.
